Public Defender/~~Secretarial~~ Fees
(Amendment to Local Rule 12-98)

Comes now the Circuit Court, Superior Court No. 1, Superior Court No. 2, and Superior Court No. 3 of Delaware County, Indiana, and hereby adopt the following local rule for the payment of services rendered by public defenders, special public defenders, and secretaries for the preparation of appeals and for indigent representation, all effective January 1, 2000:

Section I

Public Defender Fees

(1) In-Court time for special public defenders, the amount of $50.00 per hour. Supporting documentation required.

(2) Out-of-Court time for special public defenders, the amount of $40.00 per hour. Supporting documentation required.

(3) The base fee for an appeal for public defenders is $2,000.00 for a trial before the Court or by jury.

(4) The base fee for an appeal of sentencing or revocation of probation is set at $750.00.

Murder Cases

In addition to the annual salary of a public defender and in order to fairly compensate counsel for all preparation and actual days spent in trial, the following fees will be approved:

(1) Trial of one week or less, up to $4,000.00 as additional compensation for lead counsel. Co-counsel will be compensated up to $2,500.00.

(2) Trial of two weeks or less, up to $5,000.00 as additional compensation for lead counsel. Co-counsel will be compensated up to $3,000.00.

(3) Trial of up to three weeks or less, up to $6,000.00 as additional compensation for lead counsel. Co-counsel will be compensated up to $3,500.00.

A trial attorney fee ordered paid pursuant to this schedule would be in addition to any appropriate attorney fee paid to prosecute an indigent appeal.

A Petition for Attorney Fees shall have attached thereto an itemized Bill of Particulars. Mileage for filing of appeals shall be calculated at .28¢ per mile.

Capital Murder Cases

(1) Compensation will be paid pursuant to applicable rule or statute and by contract with designated attorney.

Class A Felony Trials

Class A felony cases resulting in trial and represented by a public defender may be additionally compensated up to $4,000.00. A request for payment together with an itemized Bill of Particulars should be submitted to the presiding judge of the Delaware County Court System. The presiding judge will recommend to the trial judge of the case an appropriate fee.

Investigator Fees - Murder Cases

On a case by case review, the undersigned reserve the right to grant additional investigator fees to public defender investigators in murder cases.

Revised
1/2003

Section II

Secretarial Fees

- (1) $75.00 for single/first volume with less than 225 pages.
- (2) $125.00 for single/first volume with 225 to 350 pages.
- (3) $50.00 for each volume thereafter.
- (4) Copies will be charged at .50¢ per page or no more than $25.00, whichever is less.
- (5) Table of Contents shall be charged at 10% of total number of pages, or $50.00, whichever is less.
- (6) No fee will be allowed for copying of transcript for attorney.

Section III

Preparation of Brief

- (1) $3.50 per page
- (2) $10.00 per bound brief with a maximum of 13 copies.
- (3) Exhibits copied will be charged at .50¢ per exhibit.
- (4) No fee will be allowed for copying of brief for attorney.

All charges for secretarial fees shall be itemized on a Bill of Particulars and attached to the Order for Payment. The Petition for such fees shall be signed by the attorney of record.

Any deviation from the above guidelines shall be approved by the Judge of the appropriate court prior to the filing of a Petition for Attorney Fees or a Petition for Secretarial Fees by the attorney of record.

Local Rules of Small Claims Practice and Procedure

The following Local Rule regarding small claims practice and procedure is now adopted by the undersigned Judges of Delaware County, and, therefore, submitted for approval to the INDIANA SUPREME COURT, this 30th day of June, 2000.

A. Scope and Jurisdiction. These rules shall apply to all small claims proceedings in the Delaware Circuit Court No. 4 and Delaware Circuit Court No. 5 having jurisdiction over small claims as defined by relevant Indiana statutes. The plaintiff shall be required to pay a $35.00 filing fee.

B. Execution of Documents. Pursuant to T.R. 9.2(H), original documents, including but not limited to the Notice of Claim, Affidavits, Petitions for Citation, and Motions for Proceedings Supplemental, require signatures that are made with express, implied, or apparent authority and not forged or stamped.

C. Communications with the Court. Any matter communicated to the Court, outside the courtroom, must be in writing and signed by the communicating party. Each communication should contain the cause number of the case, and a copy should be sent to all opposing parties.

D. Scheduling.

1. Delaware Circuit Court No. 4: Upon the filing of a complaint, an initial hearing shall be scheduled by the Clerk of the Court. At the initial hearing, the defendant will be expected to admit or deny liability of the claim.

If the defendant fails to appear at an initial hearing, a judgment may be entered upon proof of service. If the plaintiff fails to appear at the initial hearing, the Court may dismiss the action without prejudice.

If the defendant appears and admits liability, a Pre-Trial Settlement may be signed and filed by both parties.

If the defendant appears and denies liability, the Court shall set the matter for a bench trial and notify all parties involved.

2. Delaware Circuit Court No. 5: Upon the filing of a complaint, an initial hearing shall be scheduled by the Court staff. Parties are expected to be fully prepared for trial at the time of the initial hearing in the event the defendant denies liability.

E. Attorney Fees. A party requesting payment of attorney fees shall present to the Court a written affidavit detailing the time spent, services rendered, and hourly rate requested.

F. Continuances. A party may be granted a continuance for good cause shown upon filing a written motion signed by the moving party.

G. Judgments. A Default Judgment may be filed upon proof of service, and an Affidavit of Non-Military Service and Competency must be filed at that time.

H. Proceedings Supplemental. After a judgment has been entered but not paid, a party may file a Motion for Proceedings Supplemental and an Order to Appear in Court and Answer as to Wages, Assets, Property, and Income. The Clerk will provide the proper forms and a hearing date.

If additional efforts are needed to collect a judgment, the Clerk will provide an instruction sheet and additional forms to the parties.

I. Bankruptcy Stay. Any party seeking a stay of the proceedings as a result of a bankruptcy proceeding should file a copy of such Bankruptcy Petition and a showing that the debt was scheduled with the Court. The Court at that time will calendar the matter for one (1) year to set the matter for dismissal if, in fact, the party has not been discharged in bankruptcy.

J. Release of Judgment. After a judgment has been paid in full, it is the responsibility of the plaintiff to file a Release of Judgment with the Court.

K. Dismissals. A claim, counter-claim, or cross-claim may be dismissed by the party filing a written pleading at any time before judgment is entered. If a counter-claim or cross-claim has been filed, the dismissal of the original claim will not result in the cancellation of the hearing until the counter-claim or cross-claim has been dismissed.

L. Small Claims Manual. The complete Small Claims Manual is available for review at the Clerk's Office and is also on the Internet at <http://ecicnet.org/~dcclerk>.

LOCAL RULES REGARDING DOMESTIC RELATION CASES

(Amendment to Local Rule 1990, 1997-1 AND 1997-2)

The following Local Rule regarding domestic relation cases is now adopted by the undersigned Judges of Delaware County and, therefore, submitted for approval to the INDIANA SUPREME COURT, this 30th day of June, 2000.

A. Petition for Modification. No Petition for Modification of Custody, Child Support, or Spousal Maintenance will be entertained unless a full year has elapsed from the date of the last decision of the court pertaining to custody, support or maintenance, except on showing by a verified petition requesting a hearing and setting forth in detail that an extreme emergency exists.

B. Order of Modification. Commencing on July 1, 2000, all Recorded Judgment Orders on Petitions to Modify Support Payments shall be accompanied with a change in support payment sheet. The Recorded Judgment Order submitted for signature WILL NOT be signed without a change in support sheet completed and attached, or proof that the same has been done with the Support Clerk of Delaware County. With the above procedure being followed, any arrearage to be determined will be computed automatically on the support records and will allow the attorneys access to said arrearage immediately.

A. Termination of Representative Capacity. Upon the entry of a final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, Legal Separation, Paternity, or an order of permanent modification of any custody, visitation, or child support, the representative capacity of all attorneys appearing on behalf of any party shall be deemed terminated upon:

1. An order of withdrawal granted pursuant to the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure; or

2. The expiration of time within which an appeal of such order may be preserved or perfected pursuant to the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure or the Indiana Rules of Appellate Procedure; or

3. The conclusion of any appeal of such order commenced pursuant to Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure or the Indiana Rules of Appellate Procedure.

B. Service of Pleadings. The service of any post dissolution pleadings upon any party not represented by counsel pursuant to Paragraph A above shall be made upon that person pursuant to the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

C. Courtesy Copy. Any copy served upon the withdrawn attorney will be deemed to be a matter of professional courtesy only.

In Re: Court Reporters

Local Rule 09-2002

The Board of Judges of the Delaware County Circuit Court, Indiana hereby adopt the following local rule by which court reporter services shall be governed.

Section One. Definitions

The following definitions shall apply under this local rule:

- (1) A court reporter is a person who is specifically designated by a court to perform the official court reporting services for the court including preparing a transcript of the record.
- (2) Equipment means all physical items owned by the court or other government entity and used by a court reporter in performing court reporting services. Equipment shall include, but not be limited to, telephones, copy machines, fax machines, computer hardware, software programs, disks, tapes and any other device used for recording, storing and transcribing electronic data.
- (3) Work space means that portion of the court's facilities dedicated to each court reporter, including but not limited to actual space in the courtroom and any designated office space.
- (4) Page means the page unit of transcript which results when a recording is transcribed in the form required by Indiana rule of Appellate Procedure 7.2.
- (5) Recording means the electronic, mechanical, stenographic or other recording made as required by Indiana Rule of Trial Procedure 74.

- (6) Regular hours worked means those hours which the court is regularly scheduled to work during any given work week.
- (7) Gap hours worked means those hours worked in excess of the regular hours worked but hours not in excess of forty (40) hours per work week.
- (8) Overtime hours worked means those hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per work week.
- (9) Work week means a seven (7) consecutive day week that consistently begins and ends on the same days through the year, i.e. Sunday through Saturday, Wednesday through Tuesday, Friday through Thursday.
- (10) Court means the particular court for which the court reporter performs services. Court may also mean all of the courts of record in Delaware County.
- (11) County indigent transcript means a transcript that is paid for from county funds and is for the use on behalf of a litigant who has been declared indigent by a court. The county indigent transcript will also include any requests from the local Prosecutor's Office.
- (12) State indigent transcript means a transcript that is paid for from state funds and is for the use on behalf of a litigant who has been declared indigent by a court.
- (13) Private transcript means a transcript that is paid for by a private party, but not limited to a deposition transcript.
- (14) Expedited means transcripts which are requested to be completed within three (3) days.
- (15) Rush/Overnight means transcripts which are requested to be completed within twenty-four (24) hours.

Section Two. Salaries and Per Page Fees.

- (1) Court Reporters shall be paid an annual salary for time spent working under the control, direction and direct supervision of their supervising court during any regular work hours, gap hours or overtime hours. The supervising court shall inform the court reporter the manner in which the court reporter is to be compensated for gap and overtime hours, by receiving compensatory time off regular work hours.

(2) The maximum per page fee a court reporter may charge for the preparation of a county indigent transcript shall be $4.00, including cover pages; $1.00 per page for a copy of a transcript provided to the Public Defender's Office or the Prosecutor's Office; and .50¢ per exhibit. The fee for an "expedited" transcript (preparation within three (3) days) on a county case shall be $6.00 per page. The court reporter shall submit a claim voucher to the supervising judge for approval of payment by the county for the preparation of any county indigent transcripts.

(3) If a court reporter is requested to prepare an indigent "rush/overnight" transcript (preparation within twenty-four (24) hours or less), the per page fee shall be $7.00.

(4) The maximum per page fee a court reporter may charge for the preparation of a State indigent transcript shall be $4.00; and, $1.00 per page for a copy of a transcript; and .50¢ per exhibit. The fee for a State Public Defender requested "expedited" transcript (preparation within three (3) days) on a State indigent case will in no event exceed $6.00 per page. If a court reporter is requested by the State Public Defender to prepare an indigent "rush/overnight" transcript (preparation within twenty-four (24) hours or less), the per page fee shall be $7.00.

(5) The maximum per page fee a court reporter may charge for the preparation of a private transcript shall be \$4.25 with the court reporter being responsible for expenses as provided in Section Four (4), Paragraph Two (2). The fee for an "expedited" transcript (preparation within three (3) days) on a private case will be agreed upon between the court reporter and party requesting the same but in no event may exceed \$6.25 per page. The court reporter may charge up to \$1.00 per page for a copy of a transcript (including a disc copy), or \$1.00 per page for an exhibit with the court reporter being permitted to use the court system's copy machine outside of regular work hours. If so requested by a party, an "original copy" generated from the computer may be reproduced and charged at one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) the transcript fee.

(6) If a court reporter is requested to prepare a private "rush/overnight" transcript (preparation within twenty-four (24) hours or less), the maximum per page fee shall be $7.25.

(7) An additional labor charge approximating the hourly rate based upon the court reporter's annual fixed compensation as reflected in the court budget, may be charged for the time spent binding the transcript and exhibit binders. The labor charge shall not exceed two (2) hours, unless unusual circumstances permit the submission of a recapitulation enumerating the hours spent beyond the two (2) hour base.

(8) The Index and Table of Contents pages shall be charged at the per page rate being charged for transcript preparation either for county, state or private cases.

(9) A minimum fee up to $35.00 per transcript shall be allowed for transcripts under eight (8) pages.

(10) The court reporter or designated court employee shall report, at least on an annual basis, all transcript fees received for the preparation of either county indigent, state indigent or private transcripts to the Indiana Supreme Court Division of State Court Administration. The reporting shall be made on forms prescribed by the Division of State Court Administration.

(11) The preparation of any transcript for payment shall not be performed during regular work hours, including but not limited to, transcribing, copying, or other functions related to the compilation of the transcript.

Section Three. Private Practice

(1) If a court reporter elects to engage in private practice through the recording of a deposition and/or preparing of a deposition transcript, all such private practice work shall be conducted outside of regular work hours and the court reporter will not be allowed to utilize the court equipment to do so.

Section Four. Supplies

(1) All supplies for County or State indigent transcripts, i.e. transcript paper, binders and copy paper shall be provided through the court system's office supply account.

(2) All supplies for Private transcripts, i.e. transcript paper, binders and copy paper shall be the responsibility of the court reporter. The court reporter will not be allowed to charge for the cost of such supplies due to the allotted fee approved herein for the preparation of a private transcript.

It is Agreed among the Judges of the Delaware County Court System that the foregoing Local Rule shall be adopted this 27th day of September, 2002, and shall prevail over prior Rules for Court Reporters.

Local Rule 4-2003

(Amendment to Local Rule July 1, 2000)

The following local rule regarding selection of special judges where a special judge does not accept a civil case under Trial Rule 79(D), (E), or (F), is now adopted by the undersigned judges of the Delaware Circuit Court, in conjunction with the other Courts of Administrative District 6 as established by Administrative Rule 3(A)(6), and submitted for approval to the INDIANA SUPREME COURT this 23rd day of April, 2003.

A. Subdistricts Identified. To make the most effective use of judicial resources by using close proximity of the judges, Administrative District 6 shall be divided into three (3) subdistricts, the judges in each subdistrict constituting the panel for assignment in the event a special judge fails to accept a civil case under Trial Rule 79(D), (E), or (F), except that the following juvenile judges of the whole district shall constitute the panel for assignment in juvenile cases: Honorable Bruce C. Bade of Blackford Circuit Court; Honorable Robert L. Barnet of Delaware Circuit Court No. 3; Honorable Jack L. Brinkman of Madison Superior Court; Honorable Marianne Vorhees of Delaware Circuit Court No. 1; Honorable Jan L. Chalfant of Randolph Circuit Court; Honorable Richard A. Dailey of Delaware Circuit Court No. 2; Honorable Mary Willis of Henry Circuit Court; and Honorable Michael D. Peyton of Henry

Superior Court.

The subdistricts are : Grant, Blackford, Madison, Henry, Delaware, Jay and Randolph Counties.

In submitting panels under Trial Rule 79 (F), judges in Delaware County shall name only regular or senior judges from this county.

B. Assignment - Civil. Any assignment required shall be made by the Delaware County Clerk on a rotating basis in consecutive order from the following individuals:

1. In Delaware, Jay and Randolph Counties: Honorable Robert L. Barnet; Honorable Marianne Vorhees; Honorable Jan L. Chalfant; Honorable Richard A. Dailey; Honorable Wayne J. Lennington; Honorable Joel D. Roberts; Honorable John Feick; and Honorable Peter Haviza.

The list of regular judges in the subdistrict containing Delaware County may be supplemented by senior judges of the whole district.

In no event shall an individual be chosen whose name was placed on the panel submitted to the litigants under Trial Rule 79 (F).

In those cases where a judge has accepted an out-of-county special judge appointment under Trial Rule 79 (D), (E), and (F), and the case has not been transferred to such judge's court under Trial Rule 79 (M), the court bailiff shall notify the Delaware County Clerk, and such clerk shall exempt such judge from assignment for a case under Trial Rule 79 (H).

C. Annual Review. This local rule shall be subject to annual review by the regular judges of this administrative district.

D. Ineligibility. In the event no judge is eligible to serve as special judge in a case, or special circumstances warrant selection of a special judge by the INDIANA SUPREME COURT, the Delaware County Clerk shall certify this fact to the INDIANA SUPREME COURT for the appointment of a special judge, pursuant to Trial Rule 79 (K).

These matters have the same effect as if originally filed in the Delaware Circuit Court.

WHEREAS, the Board of Judges has revised the allocation of case assignments; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Judges is authorized to transfer cases between judges and divisions of the court; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Judges has determined that the efficient administration of justice is better served by a reallocation of certain types of cases.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of Judges of the Delaware Circuit Court, by its Presiding Judge, Orders and Directs the following:

(A) That the Clerk of Delaware County, upon direction of a transfer of any case holding a judgment, garnishment, bail bond, or otherwise, shall within said transfer, perfect the necessary changes to provide for the efficient and accurate accounting of all payments made toward any judgment rendered, including, but not limited to, garnishment payments made through a garnishee defendant, the release of judgments, bail bonds or other matters pertaining to said original cause and the transfer therein. In the perfection of the within Order, the Clerk shall notify interested parties to the action and the garnishee defendant.

(B) Cases filed prior to June 1, 2003, will remain in the court of origin, unless otherwise Ordered.

(C) Effective June 1, 2003, allocation of cases will be as follows:

DISCOVERY AND
MOTIONS IN LIMINE
IN CRIMINAL CASES

The following Local Rule regarding criminal cases filed in Circuit Courts 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 is now adopted by the Board of Judges:

DISCOVERY

In all Murder, Class A, Class B, Class C, and Class D Felony cases, unless relieved by court order, the Prosecuting Attorney shall, within thirty (30) days after the initial hearing in any criminal action filed against the Defendant, furnish the attorney for the Defendant the following:

1. The names and addresses of persons whom the Prosecuting Attorney intends to call as witnesses at the trial, together with their relevant written or recorded statements.
2. Any written or recorded statements and any summaries of oral statements made by the accused herein or any statements of others which contain a declaration of the accused.
3. Those portions of the Grand Jury minutes which contain statements of witnesses whom the Prosecutor intends to call and directly examine at trial, which statements are probably within the control of the prosecution and which statements will relate to matters covered in the witness' testimony in this case, for the purpose of cross-examination and impeachment of such witness' credibility.
4. The relevant testimony which is reduced to writing of persons whom the Prosecutor intends to call as a witness at the trial, but who did not testify before the Grand Jury.
5. Any reports or statements of experts made in connection with this case, including results of physical or mental examination and of scientific tests, experiments, or comparisons.
6. Any books, papers, documents, photographs or tangible objects, which the Prosecuting Attorney intends to use in the trial or which were obtained from or belong to the accused or his family.
7. Any record or prior criminal convictions of persons whom the Prosecutor intends to call as witnesses at the trial.

8. Any declarations against interest made by the Defendant.
9. Any evidence the Prosecutor might have, favorable to the Defendant.
10. Copies of any photographs which the prosecution has in its possession which it intends to introduce as evidence.
11. Any description of the Defendant's conduct, if any, that the prosecution intends to introduce as an implied admission.
12. Any promises, rewards, or inducements provided to prosecution witnesses or defense witnesses.
13. Any victim's statement that was recorded or memorialized and that is under the State's control.
14. Any and all medical reports in appropriate cases.
15. That portion of police reports containing substantially verbatim statements of witnesses.
16. The criminal record of the Defendant, including arrests and convictions.
17. Evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts pursuant to Evidence Rule 404(b).

The State shall also allow counsel for the Defendant to examine any and all physical evidence, whether or not the prosecution intends to present the evidence at trial, within thirty (30) days after the initial hearing.

In all Murder, Class A, Class B, Class C, and Class D Felony cases, unless relieved by court order, counsel for the Defendant shall, within thirty (30) days after receiving the discovery from the State of Indiana in any criminal action filed against the Defendant, furnish the attorney for the State of Indiana the following:

1. Any reports or results or testimony relative thereto, of physical or mental examination or of scientific tests, experiments or comparisons, or any other reports or statements of experts pertaining to this case.
2. A summary of any special or statutory defense(s), which Defendant intends to make at a hearing or trial in this cause.
3. Names and last known addresses of persons Defendant intends to call as witnesses, together with their relevant written or recorded statements, including memoranda reporting or summarizing their oral statements, and any record of prior criminal convictions known to the Defendant.

4. Any books, papers, documents, photographs, or tangible objects Defendant intends to use as evidence or for impeachment at a hearing or trial.

If Defendant is not represented by an attorney, the above requirements do not apply, and the parties must file written motions with the Court to request discovery.

MOTIONS IN LIMINE

In all Murder, Class A, Class B, Class C, and Class D Felony cases, unless relieved by court order, the following items are excluded from evidence, and the Court prohibits any reference at trial to the following. In addition, counsel and all witnesses may not refer to, mention, or testify about the following:

1. The statutory penalty provided for the offense(s) charged, or any and all included offenses.
2. The fact that the Defendant failed to make a statement either orally or in writing at the time of his arrest.
3. Any questioning of the Defendant, or any statements which Defendant may have made while he was in the custody of the police, absent proof beyond a reasonable doubt that the statements were made freely and voluntarily and after a knowing and intelligent waiver of rights by the Defendant.
4. Any previous arrest or detention of the Defendant which did not result in a conviction, or any other alleged offenses, purportedly involving Defendant, in which he was neither arrested nor charged.
5. Any prior conviction of the Defendant, except those which may be used for the purpose of impeachment.

Local Rules Regarding Discovery and Motions in Limine in 2003 TERM

Amended Local Rules of Criminal Practice and Procedure August 27, 2003

The following Amended Local Rule regarding the assignment of criminal cases is now adopted by the undersigned Judges of Delaware County and, therefore, submitted for approval to the INDIANA SUPREME COURT, this 27th day of August, 2003.

A. Assignment of Cases. In order to provide for the non-discretionary assignment of felony and misdemeanor cases beginning August 31, 2003, the Circuit Court of Delaware County, Indiana, now adopts this local rule.

All felonies charging Murder, class A felony, class B felony, class C felony, or class D felony will be assigned to the appropriate court based upon the month in which the offense is alleged to have occurred. The following monthly rotation is now established for the general jurisdiction of courts for Delaware County:

Circuit Court No. 1 - the first month (June, 2003);

Circuit Court No. 2 - the second month;

Circuit Court No. 3 - the third month;

Circuit Court No. 4 - the fourth month;

Circuit Court No. 5 - the fifth month;

Thereafter, the monthly rotation among the courts will continue in this sequence until further order.

In the event a misdemeanor is also charged in conjunction with a more serious offense, such additional charge shall be assigned to the same court having jurisdiction of the more serious offense.

In the event of multiple offenses, the date of the earliest offense alleged in the charging document shall control the assignment.

From and after August 31, 2003, all criminal cases filed in any division of Delaware County shall be filed in compliance with this rule and in the appropriate court as heretofore set out.

B. Transfer and Reassign. Any judge of a division of the Delaware Circuit Court, by appropriate Order entered in the Record of Judgments and Orders, may transfer and reassign to any of the other judges of a division of the Delaware Circuit Court in the county with jurisdiction to hear the charged offense any pending case subject to acceptance by the receiving court.

C. Refiling by the State. In the event the State of Indiana dismisses a case and later chooses to refile that case, the case shall be assigned to the court from which dismissal was taken.

In the event the State of Indiana dismisses a case, any subsequent related cases filed against such defendant within ninety (90) days shall be assigned to the court from which dismissal was taken.

D. Additional Related Charges. In the event additional related charges are filed against a criminal defendant subsequent to the assignment of the case, all such additional related charges shall be assigned to the court of initial assignment.

E. Additional Unrelated Charges. In the event additional unrelated charges are filed against a criminal defendant subsequent to any other pending case assignment, the case or cases shall be assigned to the appropriate court based upon the month in which the offense is alleged to have occurred.

F. Reassignment. In the event a change of judge is granted or it becomes necessary to assign another judge in a criminal proceeding in Delaware Circuit Court No. 1, Delaware Circuit Court No. 2 or Delaware Circuit Court No. 3, the rule following shall apply:

1. Upon the granting of a change of judge or upon any order of reassignment by the Judge of the Delaware Circuit Court No. 1, the case will be reassigned to the Delaware Circuit Court No. 2. Upon the granting of a change of judge or upon any order of reassignment by the Judge of the Delaware Circuit Court No. 2, the case will be reassigned to the Delaware Circuit Court No. 3. Upon the granting of a change of judge or upon any order of reassignment by the Judge of the Delaware Circuit Court No. 3, the case will be reassigned to the Delaware Circuit Court No. 4. Upon the granting of a change of judge or upon any order of reassignment by the judge of the Delaware Circuit Court No. 4, the case will be reassigned to Delaware Circuit Court No. 5. Upon the granting of a change of judge or upon any order of reassignment by the judge of the Delaware Circuit Court No. 5, the case will be reassigned to Delaware Circuit Court No. 1.

In the event any judge of Delaware County to whom a case is assigned under this Section D, is unable or unwilling to serve due to current caseload or for any other reason, or in the further event that a successor judge is required, the case shall be reassigned by the clerk to another judge in Delaware County, excepting therefrom the judge from which the original change was requested and the judge who is unable or unwilling to serve. The clerk shall make the reassignment to the next qualified judge having appropriate jurisdiction in consecutive order as follows: Delaware Circuit Court No. 1, Delaware Circuit Court No. 2, Delaware Circuit Court No. 3, Delaware Circuit Court No. 4, and Delaware Circuit Court No. 5.

G. Master Commissioners. Each master commissioner shall, on a weekend rotating basis, be on call to the Delaware County Sheriff's Department for the approval of probable cause. The schedule will be determined by a designated master commissioner. Said rotation schedule will be provided by the designated master commissioner to other master commissioners, the Sheriff's Department, public defender, and the court administrator.

Adopted and Respectfully Submitted for Approval this 27th day of August, 2003.

IN JUVENILE DELINQUENCY CASES

The following Local Rule regarding juvenile delinquency cases filed in Circuit Courts 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 is now adopted by the Board of Judges:

DISCOVERY

In all filed juvenile delinquency cases, unless relieved by court order, the prosecuting attorney shall, within thirty (30) days after the initial hearing in any delinquency action filed against the child, furnish the attorney for the child the following:

1. The names and addresses of persons whom the prosecuting attorney intends to call as witnesses at the fact-finding hearing, together with their relevant written or recorded statements.
2. Any written or recorded statements and any summaries of oral statements made by the child herein or any statements of others which contain a declaration of the child.
3. Those portions of the Grand Jury minutes which contain statements of witnesses whom the prosecutor intends to call and directly examine at the fact-finding hearing, which statements are probably within the control of the prosecution and which statements will relate to matters covered in the witness' testimony in this case, for the purpose of cross-examination and impeachment of such witness' credibility.
4. The relevant testimony which is reduced to writing of persons whom the prosecutor intends to call as a witness at the fact-finding hearing, but who did not testify before the Grand Jury.
5. Any reports or statements of experts made in connection with the case, including results of physical or mental examination and of scientific tests, experiments, or comparisons.
6. Any books, papers, documents, photographs or tangible objects, which the prosecuting attorney intends to use at the fact-finding hearing or which were obtained from or belong to the child or his family.
7. Any record or prior criminal convictions of persons whom the prosecutor intends to call as witnesses at the fact-finding hearing.
8. Any declarations against interest made by the child.
9. Any evidence the prosecutor might have, favorable to the child.

10. Copies of any photographs which the prosecution has in its possession which it intends to introduce as evidence.

11. Any description of the child's conduct, if any, that the prosecution intends to introduce as an implied admission.

12. Any promises, rewards, or inducements provided to prosecution witnesses or defense witnesses for the child.

13. Any victim's statement that was recorded or memorialized and that is under the State's control.

14. Any and all medical reports in appropriate cases.

15. That portion of police reports containing substantially verbatim statements of witnesses.

16. The delinquency record of the child, including arrests and adjudications.

17. Evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts pursuant to Evidence Rule 404(b).

The State shall also allow counsel for the child to examine any and all physical evidence, whether or not the prosecution intends to present the evidence at the fact-finding hearing, within thirty (30) days after the initial hearing.

In all filed juvenile delinquency cases, unless relieved by court order, counsel for the child shall, within thirty (30) days after receiving the discovery from the State of Indiana in any delinquency action filed against the child, furnish the attorney for the State of Indiana the following:

1. Any reports or results or testimony relative thereto, of physical or mental examination or of scientific tests, experiments or comparisons, or any other reports or statements of experts pertaining to this case.

2. A summary of any special or statutory defense(s), which the child intends to make at a hearing in this cause.

3. Names and last known addresses of persons the child intends to call as witnesses, together with their relevant written or recorded statements, including memoranda reporting or summarizing their oral statements, and any record of prior delinquency adjudication known to the child.

4. Any books, papers, documents, photographs, or tangible objects the child intends to use as evidence or for impeachment at a hearing.

If the child is not represented by an attorney, the above requirements do not apply, and the parties must file written motions with the Court to request discovery.

MOTIONS IN LIMINE

In all filed delinquency cases, unless relieved by court order, the following items are excluded from evidence, and the court prohibits any reference at the fact-finding hearing to the following. In addition, counsel and all witnesses may not refer to, mention, or testify about the following:

1. The fact that the child failed to make a statement either orally or in writing at the time of his arrest.
2. Any questioning of the child, or any statements which the child may have made while he was in the custody of the police, absent proof beyond a reasonable doubt that the statements were made freely and voluntarily and after a knowing and intelligent waiver of rights by the child.
3. Any previous arrest or detention of the child which did not result in a delinquency adjudication, or any other alleged offenses, purportedly involving the child, in which he was neither arrested nor charged.
4. Any prior delinquency adjudication of the child, except those which may be used for the purpose of impeachment.

The rule regarding Motions in Limine shall apply to cases in which the Child is not represented by an attorney.

In Re: Public Defender Secretarial Fees

Local Rule 10-2003

The Board of Judges of the Delaware County Circuit Court, Indiana hereby adopt the following local rule (amending Local Rule 1-2003) by which public defender secretarial services shall be governed, effective October, 15, 2003.

Section One. Definitions

The following definitions shall apply under this local rule:

- (1) Equipment means all physical items owned by the court or other government entity and used by a public defender secretary in performing public defender secretarial services. Equipment shall include, but not be limited to, telephones, copy machines, fax machines, computer hardware, software programs, discs, tapes and any other device used for recording, storing and transcribing electronic data.
- (2) Work space means that portion of the court's facilities dedicated to each county employed public defender secretary, including but not limited to actual space in any designated office space.
- (3) Page means the page unit of a brief which results when prepared in the form required by Indiana Rules of Appellate Procedure.
- (4) Regular hours worked means those hours which the public defender's office is regularly scheduled to work during any given work week.

(5) County indigent brief means a brief that is paid for from county funds and is for the use on behalf of a litigant who has been declared indigent by a court.

(6) Expedited means briefs which are requested to be completed within three (3) days.

(7) Rush/Overnight means briefs which are requested to be completed within twenty-four (24) hours.

Section Two. Salaries and Per Page Fees.

(1) Public Defender Secretaries shall be paid an annual salary for time spent working under the control, direction and direct supervision of the Board of Judges during any regular work hours.

(2) Maximum per page fee public defender secretaries may charge for the preparation of county indigent appearances, Notice of Appeal, Appellant's Case Summary, motions, cover pages, briefs, petitions, additional authorities, authorizations, affidavits, cover letters, and verifications shall be Four Dollars ($4.00) per page.

(3) Maximum per page fee for an "expedited" brief or petition (preparation within three (3) days) on a county case shall be Six Dollars ($6.00) per page.

(4) The maximum per page fee for a "rush/overnight" brief or petition (preparation within twenty-four (24) hours or less) shall be Seven Dollars ($7.00) per page.

(5) a. Appellate Rule 50 (B) shall be followed in regard to the appendix in a criminal appeal.

b. The maximum per page fee a public defender secretary may charge shall be twenty-five cents ($.25) for copies. Service of Documents, Appellate Rule 24 (A) shall apply.

c. The maximum number of copies charged for Briefs on a criminal appeal shall be limited to ten (10) copies.

d. Copies produced on behalf of the public defender or client shall not be charged to the court.

(6) a. Appellate Rule 50 (A) shall be followed specifically in regard to the appendix in pauper civil cases.

b. The maximum per page fee of twenty-five cents ($.25) for copies in civil cases shall be charged for those items needed as set out in Appellate Rule 50 (A). Service of Documents, Appellate Rule 24 (A) shall apply.

c. The maximum number of copies charged for Briefs on civil appeal shall be limited to ten (10) copies.

d. Only where it may apply in the appeal, copies of exhibits to be attached to the appendix as specified in Appellate Rule 50 (A), shall be charged at fifty cents ($.50) PER exhibit.

e. Copies produced on behalf of the public defender or the client shall not be charged to the court.

(7) An additional labor charge approximating the hourly rate based upon the public defender secretary's annual fixed compensation as reflected in the court budget, may be charged for the time spent verifying, by the county public defender's office, the appendix (as outlined in Appellate Procedure Rule 50-B (f)). The labor charge shall NOT exceed three (3) hours, unless unusual circumstances permit the submission of a recapitulation enumerating the hours spent beyond the three (3) hour base.

(8) An additional labor charge approximating the hourly rate based upon the public defender secretary's annual fixed compensation as reflected in the court budget, may be charged for the time spent binding and numbering of the appendix. The labor charge shall NOT exceed two (2) hours, unless unusual circumstances permit the submission of a recapitulation enumerating the hours spent beyond the two (2) hour base.

(9) An additional labor charge approximating the hourly rate based upon the public defender secretary's annual fixed compensation as reflected in the court budget, may be charged for the time spent binding of the brief. The labor charge shall not exceed two (2) hours, unless unusual circumstances permit the submission of a recapitulation enumerating the hours spent beyond the two (2) hour base.

(10) An additional labor charge approximating the hourly rate based upon the public defender secretary's annual fixed compensation as reflected in the court budget, may be charged for the time spent preparing for shipment and delivery to appropriate place for shipment. The labor charge shall not exceed one (1) hour, unless unusual circumstances permit the submission of a recapitulation enumerating the hours spent beyond the one (1) hour base.

(11) An additional labor charge approximating the hourly rate based upon the public defender secretary's annual fixed compensation as reflected in the court budget, may be charged for the time spent traveling to and from the Clerk of the Court of Appeals. The labor charge shall not exceed three (3) hours, unless unusual circumstances permit the submission of a recapitulation enumerating the hours spent beyond the three (3) hour base.

(12) A charge per mile for mileage at the current rate set by the county may be charged for one-hundred thirty (130) miles round trip to and from the Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

(13) The preparation of any brief for payment shall not be performed during regular work hours, including but not limited to, transcribing, copying, or other functions related to the compilation of the brief.

Section Three. Supplies

(1) All supplies for county indigent appeals and depositions, i.e. transcript paper, binders and copy paper shall be provided through the court system's office supply account for the public defender secretaries.

It is Agreed among the Judges of the Delaware County Court System that the foregoing Local Rule shall be adopted this 17th day of December, 2003, and shall prevail over prior Rules for Public Defender Secretaries.

We, the Judges of the Circuit Court of Delaware County, Indiana, enter the following order establishing the amount of bail for those persons charged with the commission of criminal offenses by Information, arrest, Probable Cause or Indictment.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, by the Court that effective immediately and until further order of the court, bail shall be as follows for all individuals charged with the commission of criminal offenses in the Delaware Circuit Court.

I. Felonies

- A. For murder or attempted murder, no bail is to be set except by the Court at initial hearing;
- B. For any person charged with being an habitual offender, bail is to be set at $50,000.00;
- C. For any class A felony offense, bail shall be set at initial hearing;
- D. For any class B felony offense, bail shall be set at initial hearing;
- E. For any class C felony offense, bail shall be $10,000.00; however, if the class C felony involves death, bail shall be set at initial hearing;
- F. For any class D felony offense, bail shall be $5,000.00;
- G. For any case where the person charged has been previously convicted of a felony offense within the past five (5) years, bail shall be twice the amount otherwise specified in this section.

II. Misdemeanors

- A. For class A misdemeanors, bail shall be $2,500.00;
- B. For class B misdemeanors, bails shall be $1,000.00.

II. Other Provisions

A. Intoxication

No person shall be released by the Sheriff of Delaware County, regardless of the provisions of this Order, unless such person clearly manifests that they are in a state of sobriety at the time the provisions of this Order would otherwise permit release.

1. The Sheriff shall hold in custody any person who is under the influence of alcohol or controlled substances until such time it is determined, at the sheriff's discretion, that the individual may be safely released without danger to self or others.

B. Domestic Violence

A person arrested on a charge involving domestic violence shall not be released until twelve (12) hours has elapsed or until appearance in court, whichever is earlier. After twelve (12) hours, the person may post bail (1) pursuant to other sections of this Bail Order, and (2) if the person agrees in writing to initiate no contact with the victim. If the person charged refuses to sign such an agreement, they shall be held until brought to Court.

C. Overweight Trucking Violations

The bail schedule as set out in this Order shall not apply to overweight trucking violations. Bail for such offenses shall be convened by the provisions of I.C. 9-20-1, et seq.

D. Double Bond

For any case where the person charged is on bail on a pending charge, the bail shall be twice the amount of the bail otherwise required by this Order.

E. Full Cash Bond

When any person proposes to post a full bond in cash or by certified check and the Clerk's Office is not open for business, the sheriff shall accept the money or check and issue a receipt therefore to the person making the payment in that person's name or as they direct. Thereafter, as soon as is practicable, the sheriff shall deposit the money or check with the Clerk.

F. Felony Arrests While on Probation or Parole

Pursuant to I.C. 35-33-8-6, all adult persons, with any felony arrest, who are on probation or parole, shall not be released on the normal bond schedule, but should be brought before the Court at the earliest opportunity, and in no circumstances, should be held for longer than fifteen (15) days in jail without bond.

G. 10% Cash Bond

The Clerk may not accept a 10% cash deposit in lieu of the bond otherwise required herein, except upon express written Order of a judge. In the event such a bond is approved by the Court, the Clerk may retain as a service fee ten percent (10%) of the amount deposited when the bond is released at the conclusion of the case.

H. Property Bond

Pursuant to I.C. 35-33-8-3.2(a)(1)(c), an bond may be secured by real estate in the county, where thirty-three hundredths (0.33) of the true tax value less encumbrances is at least equal to the amount of the bail. The Clerk shall not accept a property bond in lieu of a surety bond otherwise required herein, except upon express written Order of a judge.

I. Amount of Bail on Warrant

If the bail is set at a probable cause hearing, the amount of bail set by the judge shall be endorsed upon the arrest warrant.

J. Release of Bond

No cash bond may be released by the Clerk, except upon written Order of a judge after judgment has been entered and any fines and costs imposed by the Court have been paid and satisfied.

The Clerk of the Court is ORDERED to place a copy of this Order in the Record of Judgments and Orders of the Delaware Circuit Court.

All of Which is So Ordered, this 5th day of August, 2004.
